

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 4 & 5, 2023

“They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on peoples shoulders.”
Matthew 23

Letting Go of Burdens

Last month my youngest child Lindsay and their family relocated from De Pere to Phoenix, AZ, a 30 hour drive. Since my dad was my co-pilot and loves driving (he has 4.6 million safe miles as a retired semi-driver) I had time to catch up on some reading.

I was reading an inclusive prayer book when I came across a reading from Ashes to Easter, written by Bishop Morneau, that was very fitting for this weekend’s “Good News Message” and how Jesus accused Jerusalem’s religious leaders of laying “heavy burdens” on people by imposing more and more rules on them (Matthew 23:4).

Bishop Bob wrote; “Jesus gives us a simple, clear example of what discipleship is all about: service. Washing one another’s feet, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked—here is the core of the Eucharist, our great miracle of love. . . . God’s table is large, as large as creation. All are invited, all are to have access to the necessity of food and the miracle of love. Both are essential to the fullness of life. Without food, the body languishes and dies; without love, our souls wither and are filled with despair. The leftovers in our lives? What are they and who will get them? So many people can live off our leavings if we would only share. This is hardly sufficient. Disciples of Christ give abundantly in imitation of the Master who gave his very self.”

As we head into November and the final weeks of the church’s liturgical year, take a moment to reflect on any burdens that may have been laid on you. Through prayer and reflection, where can one let go and let God, turning our time toward imitating the Master through a life of stewardship and love.

The Noble Men of No Shave November

No Shave November originally began in order to raise awareness for prostate cancer and men's health. Resurrection has embraced this idea and taken it a step further to include collecting supplies for those who do not have regular access to shaving and grooming items.

Join in the fun of No Shave November! Cast your vote of who has the most fabulous facial fur, Fr. Tom, Kevin, or Tony, by placing shaving supplies in the box of your choice in the main greeting area. All donations will go to the NEW Community and St. John the Evangelist Homeless Shelters.

Service Saturday: Holiday Card Making

Put your faith into action, either as a family or individually, by making holiday cards for the inmates at Brown County Jail.

Saturday, November 11
10:00 AM
Gathering Area

For more information or to register, contact Tony Pichler.

The History of the Christ Mini-Series

Is Christ really the last name of Jesus? Was Christ born in a manger over 2000 years ago? Join Fr. Richard Rohr through the wonders of video for his The History of the Christ Series. This three-part series will help you to understand our faith statement in a much richer way: Christ has died, Christ has risen. Christ will come again. Come to one session or all!

Tuesdays
November 7, 14, and 21
8:45-9:45 AM or 6:30-7:30 PM
Gathering Area

For more information, contact Tony at tpichler@gbres.org or in the parish office.

Help Needed for Sunday Liturgy of the Word for Children

Sunday mornings, during the 8:30 and 10:30 Masses, children ages 4-6 meet while the congregation is listening to the readings and homily. The children learn about the gospel at their level.

We are looking for adults and middle school and high school youth (service hours provided) for this ministry. Lessons are simple and easy to follow. A new schedule is coming out starting January 2024.

Training is provided. If you can help or have questions, please email Karolyn Efferson at kefferson@gbres.org or Rosemary Baloun at rosemarybaloun@gmail.com
