

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Fourth Weekend in Ordinary Time

September 11 & 12, 2021

Please join the entire Resurrection Parish family in praying for the Confirmation candidates who will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation Sunday, September 12.

These young adults have grown in their faith over the past year. With the help of their sponsors, their confirmation leaders, families, and the entire parish family, the Confirmands have studied, prayed, and served in preparation for this day.

May they all be strengthened and empowered by the Holy Spirit to be witnesses of Christ in the world and fully participate in the life of the Church.

Afghan Refugee Assistance Needed

Catholic Charities is seeking help in several ways to assist the thousands of Afghan refugees that are currently being housed at Camp McCoy in our state.

Volunteers are being sought who could donate at least a week of service to help out on the grounds at Camp McCoy in various ways. Also, donations are being collected to purchase much-needed items for their care while at the camp.

For more information or to volunteer or donate, please log on to
