

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Fifth Weekend in Ordinary Time
September 18 & 19, 2021

Jesus seems to be constantly moving about the region on a journey. It is a great metaphor for us. We can see life similarly as a journey to meet new people and to know that our journey is eternal. I am happy to report that after my recent trip to Spain to walk the El Camino, I am already planning another trip, just as I planned this last trip. This time, I will walk from Santiago, Spain to Fatima, Portugal. My feet are saying no but my heart is ready to go!

Seemingly, Jesus' only motive for his journey is to live and display love. No matter what he encountered on the road, he responded with pure, unconditional love. This seems to be why so many were amazed and desired more from him.

Life passes by eternally. Every day, we are in a moment of decision – to love unconditionally or to uphold our own understanding of life that supports my family and me. This love of Jesus does not seek worldly power. This love does not seek popularity. This love only desires to be of service to those most in need. This is the love of Jesus.

HOW CAN WE LOVE?

Resurrection Parish is partnering with Catholic Charities to support efforts at Fort McCoy to welcome and care for Afghan Refugees as we fill a truckload of much needed clothing delivered on October 1st.

Highest need items to be collected - only NEW items can be accepted:

- Clothing: Summer/Fall clothes only, no Winter clothes
 - Men's: unbranded, modest clothing like shirts, pants, socks, shoes, and undergarments in various sizes.
 - Women's: unbranded, modest long-sleeve crew neck shirts, long pants, socks, shoes, and undergarments to remain culturally appropriate in various sizes.
 - Children's: mirror the above recommendations in all ages and sizes

All items can be dropped off at Resurrection Parish or at Catholic Charities, located at the diocesan offices by 4 PM on September 30th.

Blessings on your journey!

First Reconciliation and First Communion Preparation Will Be Starting Soon!

Resurrection students in the GRACE Schools and Generations of Disciples are invited to begin preparations to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Communion. A letter was mailed to children ages 6 and 7 with the registration forms. If you did not receive a letter and have children in second grade or older that have not celebrated either sacrament, please contact Karolyn Efferson at kefferson@gbres.org or register online at www.gbres.org/god

What do you know about Stewardship?

This week Erin Truty, Katie McAllister, and Jenni Harris spent time at the International Catholic Stewardship Conference in Orlando, Florida.

They were able to engage in conversations and learning through the week with parish and diocesan members from around the world. This conference is fully funded every year from a specifically designated fund from the parish endowment. Thank you to the parishioners who invested in this Stewardship Mission.

So What is Stewardship?

Stewardship is the all-encompassing way that we, as Christians cultivate, guard, and use our time, talent, and treasure.

As we head into fall, please watch your mailbox for a commitment card. This card is a way for you to reflect on how you will pray, serve, be formed, and share within Resurrection and our community partners.

If stewardship is of interest to you, please consider serving on the Resurrection Stewardship Team. You can contact Jenni in the parish office.

Support for Empty Nesters

Tuesday, September 21 at 7:00 p.m.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish

2771 Oakwood Dr, GB WI 54304

As children leave for college or move on to start their lives, parents can find themselves struggling with the new family dynamics. Whether it's your first child leaving the nest or your last, you can experience a wide range of emotions. If your identity has centered around being a parent, it can be difficult to find meaning once the kids are gone. Join other parents and coach Joanne Clark to identify ways to rediscover purpose and joy in this new chapter of our lives.

If you have questions or would like more information about this event, contact Joanne at (920) 265-4964.
