Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 11 & 12, 2023

"The wisdom the Holy Spirit grants is the grace of being able to see things through God's eyes."
Pope Francis

May Wisdom Live On

Last spring my uncle Ted passed into eternal life in western Wisconsin. Between he and my uncle Robert, who died years ago, they both provided sage wisdom as I loved to listen to their stories at family gatherings in my grandma's kitchen. A common denominator of both men, besides being brothers, is that they served our country in the armed forces. Both were extremely proud of this service and helped us to hold the same pride. As we celebrate Veterans' Day this weekend, I remember them and all of the people in my life who have served our country. But I also celebrate the wisdom that they have passed on to me and my siblings.

Both the first reading this weekend from the Book of Wisdom and the Gospel from Matthew address the issue of wisdom. The Book of Wisdom passage begins with this quote: "Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her and found by those who seek her" (Wis 6:12). As I celebrated my 60th birthday recently, I couldn't help but think of something my dad used to say. He would recollect his age and talk about his Uncle Bill and his own age. My dad was fond of saying: "I used to think that Uncle Bill was old at this age (fill in the blank with the age!) but now I don't think that is old at all!" I'm thinking the same thing. I used to think my parents were so old at age 60 and had such sage wisdom. But now I don't think they were THAT old at 60. And I wonder when my own wisdom will mysteriously appear!

Which leads to our Gospel from Matthew this weekend. In the well-known story about the wise virgins and the foolish ones. The wise virgins prepared for the bridegroom's arrival by preparing their lanterns. But the foolish ones let their lantern wicks burn too low for the long haul. This gets us thinking about wisdom as well. Are we wise? More importantly, who do we look to for that sage wisdom that we need in our lives? Parents, uncles and aunts, grandparents, teachers, coaches, supervisors, friends--all may have played a role in providing the wisdom that we needed in various situations in our life. This week try to spend a little time making a list of those wise, old owls in your life; the people you count on to give you that wise advice when needed. I know for me, as we celebrate Veterans' Day 2023, I'll be thinking about Uncle Ted and Uncle Robert. May they rest in peace. But may their wisdom live on!

The Noble Men of No Shave November

No Shave November originally began in order to raise awareness for prostate cancer and men's health. Resurrection has embraced this idea and taken it a step further to include collecting supplies for those who do not have regular access to shaving and grooming items.

Join in the fun of No Shave November! Cast your vote of who has the most fabulous facial fur, Fr. Tom, Kevin, Roger, or Tony, by placing shaving supplies in the box of your choice in the main greeting area. All donations will go to the NEW Community and St. John the Evangelist Homeless Shelters.

The History of the Christ Mini-Series

Is Christ really the last name of Jesus? Was Christ born in a manger over 2000 years ago? Join Fr. Richard Rohr through the wonders of video for his The History of the Christ Series. This three-part series will help you to understand our faith statement in a much richer way: Christ has died, Christ has risen. Christ will come again. Come to one session or all!

Tuesdays
November 14 and 21
8:45-9:45 AM or 6:30-7:30 PM
Gathering Area

For more information, contact Tony at tpichler@gbres.org or in the parish office.

Help Needed for Sunday Liturgy of the Word for Children

Sunday mornings, during the 8:30 and 10:30 Masses, children ages 4-6 meet while the congregation is listening to the readings and homily. The children learn about the gospel at their level.

We are looking for adults and middle school and high school youth (service hours provided) for this ministry. Lessons are simple and easy to follow. A new schedule is coming out starting January 2024.

Training is provided. If you can help or have questions, please email Karolyn Efferson at kefferson@gbres.org or Rosemary Baloun at rosemarybaloun@gmail.com

Weekend Hospitality

Hospitality ministers are needed to serve coffee & bakery on Sunday mornings. Consider signing up in the Gathering Area.

Whatsoever You Do, Inc. Presents:

The Day Way: A Celebration of Dorothy Day

Wednesday, November 29
7:00 PM

The Whatsoever You Do House of Hospitality
1082 Velp Ave, Green Bay

Dorothy Day has inspired the outreach ministry of Whatsoever You Do, Inc. for nearly twenty years. To honor her and commemorate her death day with prayer, reflection, song, and sharing, we gather as a community to remember her and the lives she has touched through the Catholic Worker Movement and her Houses of Hospitality over these many years since the 1930s. As she makes her way toward sainthood, we lift her up as we remember her mission of love and the works of mercy.

As part of the evening, the first Whatsoever You Do, Inc. Dorothy Day Award will be presented to St. Norbert College professor emeritus, Karina O'Malley, Ph.D. who has emulated Dorothy Day in her work with our homeless brothers and sisters in the Green Bay area for decades.

Synod publishes final report and votes: Calls for more discussion on synodality, women deacons and more

Cindy Wooden, Catholic News Service excerpts from article

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- A report summarizing discussions at the assembly of the Synod of Bishops said the church may need more welcoming pastoral approaches, especially to people who feel excluded, but also acknowledged fears of betraying traditional church teachings and practices.

Among the topics addressed in the report were clerical sexual abuse, women's roles in the church, outreach to poor and the concept of "synodality" itself.

The assembly's discussions set the stage for a year-long period of reflection that will culminate in the second and final synod assembly in late 2024 on the same topic.

The 41-page synthesis report, voted on paragraph-by-paragraph Oct. 28, described its purpose as presenting "convergences, matters for consideration and proposals that emerged from the dialogue" on issues discussed under the headings of synodality, communion, mission and participation.

Within the synod topics, members looked at the role of women in the church, including in decision making, and at the possibility of ordaining women deacons. The report asked for more "theological and pastoral research on the access of women to the diaconate," including a review of the conclusions of commissions Pope Francis set up in 2016 and 2020.

Assembly members also discussed pastoral approaches to welcoming and including in the life of parishes people who have felt excluded, including the poor, people with disabilities, LGBTQ+ Catholics and Catholics whose marriages are not recognized by the church.

... it said, "in different ways, people who feel marginalized or excluded from the Church because of their marriage status, identity, or sexuality, also ask to be heard and accompanied. There was a deep sense of love, mercy and compassion felt in the Assembly for those who are or feel hurt or neglected by the Church, who want a place to call 'home' where they can feel safe, be heard and respected, without fear of feeling judged."

In several places throughout the report, assembly members insisted that greater efforts must be made to listen to the survivors of clerical sexual abuse and those who have endured spiritual or psychological abuse.

“Openness to listening and accompanying all, including those who have suffered abuse and hurt in the Church, has made visible many who have long felt invisible,” it said. “The long journey toward reconciliation and justice, including addressing the structural conditions that abetted such abuse, remains before us, and requires concrete gestures of penitence.”

...assembly members said, “We are confident that synodality is an expression of the dynamic and living Tradition.”

“It is clear that some people are afraid that they will be forced to change; others fear that nothing at all will change or that there will be too little courage to move at the pace of the living Tradition,” the report said.

Members of the assembly described the synodal process as being “rooted in the Tradition of the Church” and taking place in light of the teaching of the Second Vatican Council, particularly its emphasis on “the Church as Mystery and People of God, called to holiness.”

Synodality, they said, “values the contribution all the baptized make, according to their respective vocations,” and thus “constitutes a true act of further reception of the Council.”
