

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Eighth Weekend in Ordinary Time
October 8 & 9, 2022

The Lepers Among Us

John and Mary are treated like lepers. That is the conclusion I have drawn after the last six weeks of providing a positive presence on the streets of Green Bay with StreetLights Outreach, which includes a number of team members from Resurrection Parish. Why are John and Mary lepers in our community? They suffer from severe mental illness and are homeless--sleeping outside of the fence at St. John's Park as the park is locked up for the night at 8 p.m.

Both the first reading from Second Kings and the Gospel according to St. Luke address the issue of leprosy. In the first reading, Naaman is cured of leprosy by plunging himself into the Jordan River seven times at the direction of the prophet Elisha. In the Gospel, we have the story of the ten lepers who are cured by Jesus and only one comes back to express his gratitude. But here is an important point in the Gospel story. The leper who comes back is a Samaritan. The people of Samaria were despised by Jews for centuries. Most people avoided Samaria, even traveling far out of their way to skirt the area. So, in a way, this leper suffers from a sort of "double leprosy." His skin disease and his ethnicity cause him to be an outcast.

Which brings us back to John and Mary. Why are they not in a shelter? For starters, until November 1 when St. John's Homeless Shelter opens to full capacity and the new women's shelter, Wellspring, is able to welcome our sisters who are homeless, there is no room in the inn. And the New Community Shelter is full. Yet, John and Mary will have a difficult time in shelter. Why? Their mental illness causes their behavior to disrupt the normal life in the shelter. This is not easy on anyone.

The StreetLights Outreach Team continues to provide a presence on the streets, and meals near St. John's Park, on a weekly basis. And the people who we encounter are mostly grateful for the conversation and warm meal. Yet the one thing still needed as the nights become colder during October are blankets, sleeping bags, and tarps. If you have these items lying around the house taking up space, please bring them to the Gathering Space and place them on the cart provided. The "lepers" of our community will be forever grateful—just like Naaman and the Samaritan leper.

Anointing Mass

Resurrection invites you to join us for an Anointing of the Sick Mass on Thursday, October 20 at 1:00 PM.

During the liturgy, all who wish to receive the Sacrament of the Sick can be anointed. Anointing is for anyone experiencing physical, emotional, or spiritual distress. Pie will be served afterwards. If you wish to join us, call the parish office to RSVP by October 15.

Generations of Disciples Begin Next Week

GOD is Resurrection's intergenerational faith formation program for the entire parish. Everyone, from babies to mature adults, are invited to learn more about our Catholic faith, to be strengthened as disciples of Jesus, and to become closer to God.

Adult Break-Out Session: An Introduction to The Bible Timeline

All adults are invited to participate.

In this session, The Bible Timeline is introduced by explaining the importance of Scripture in the Catholic faith and then looking at why many Catholics find it so hard to read the Bible. The answer: the identification of 14 books (out of 73 total) of the Bible that tell the biblical story from start to finish.

Wanted: Blankets, Sleeping Bags, and Tarps

Over the past six weeks a group of Resurrection Parish volunteers has provided a positive presence through the StreetLights Outreach Program sponsored by Whatsoever You Do, Inc for our brothers and sisters who are currently experiencing homelessness.

With the falling temperatures and early darkness, blankets, sleeping bags, and tarps are needed. Do you have any of these items taking up space in your closets?

Please bring them to the Gathering Space during the month of October and place on the cart marked "Blankets for the Homeless." Christ on the streets reminds us that: "I was cold and you provided me with warmth!"

Amani Outreach Volunteers Needed

Amani Outreach is a program for seniors and adults with a disability who strive to live independently in their own home. Sponsored by Whatsoever You Do, Inc., the program aims to provide simple home adjustments and grocery shopping while being a caring, listening presence. Please contact Tony Pichler in the parish office to volunteer.

What you did to our brothers and sisters in their senior years, you did to me!

Dear Friends,

Your contribution to the one by One campaign will go toward supporting those most in need in northeastern Wisconsin!

More than $6 million will go toward expanding Catholic Charities to new areas in our Diocese, supporting those who are experiencing homelessness, and more.

I look forward to the full participation of the parish as we seek to further the mission of the Church at Resurrection.
