Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Our Lord, Jesus Christ, King of the Universe November 25 & 26, 2023

enduring forever,
whose kingdom
shall not be destroyed,
whose dominion
shall be without end"
Daniel 6

Connections

Recently, my niece Morgan turned me on to the New York Times game called Connections. The goal of the game is to categorize 16 words into four categories by figuring out how they are related. For instance, book, table, tea, tree are all things with leaves and card, clown, cutup, joker all describe a funny person. Within each game, the categories range from straightforward to tricky.

Connections has helped me look past the surface; to examine the meaning of words and how things are connected. It has also taught me new words, people, and concepts. So I thought I would challenge Resurrection with my own Connections puzzle (answers inside bulletin):

LORD	FEED	VISIT	JESUS CHRIST
WELCOME	KING	UNIVERSE	JUSTICE
HEARTS	GUIDANCE	CLOTH	ACTIONS
MINDS	SOCIETY	UNITY	STABILITY

All the groups in the above puzzle are connected to the feast we celebrate this weekend, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

By recognizing Christ as the King of the Universe, we see the connections between all creation and God. We are all united within one kingdom - the kingdom of love; the kingdom of God. Look around and you will find the kingdom within our midst. The kingdom is in our love of God, which is connected to our love of neighbor, which is connected to the grace we receive in the Sacraments.

A good king unites and guides the people while protecting and loving all within the kingdom. Are we allowing Christ to be the king of our lives? Do we let differences divide us instead of finding unity in love? Do we follow the example of Jesus and let him guide our actions in everyday life? Do we build up the Kingdom of God through our love of God and love of neighbor?

Let us all recognize the Christ as the King of our everyday lives!

Awakening to Moments of Grace

Advent is approaching. A new liturgical year is near. Are you ready to enter into the season of awareness and preparation of Christ's coming and the celebration of Jesus' birth on Christmas?

Advent is a time to be alert and awaken to God's grace and blessings.

During Advent, the seven-pointed star serves as a reminder of the seven Sacraments through which God's grace shines upon us.

St. Nicholas will once again be visiting Resurrection on Sunday, December 3.

During Liturgy of the Word, St. Nick will spend time with the children of the parish, read "The Story of St. Nick," and make St. Nick's miters.

After both Masses, everyone is invited to enjoy a pancake and sausage breakfast, served by the Family Life Committee. During breakfast, St. Nick will be available for pictures.

Tree of Giving

Over the years, the generosity of Resurrection has been much appreciated by the agencies and families it has helped at Christmas time. Your stewardship of sharing and the spirit of Christmas is truly present in our parish.

Local agencies have made their lists and checked them twice. And soon, the "Tree of Giving" will have tags of their needed donations. Beginning November 21, stop by the main church entrance and take a donation tag. Donations need to be returned by December 10, 2023. To see a list of agencies go to gbres.org/treeofgiving.

If you have any questions, please contact one of the "Tree of Giving" Committee Members.

Christmas Cards for Brown County Jail Inmates

Resurrection has been asked to write Christmas cards to the men and women who are currently housed at the Brown County Jail this holiday season.

As Matthew 25 reminds us, "I was in prison and you visited me." This is a way to "visit" a person in jail and brighten their spirits during this Christmas Season.

Please use the following guidelines:

- + No envelopes
- + No glitter on the cards
- + No glued-on decorations or stickers
- + Use an ink pen to sign
- + Use your first name only
- + No magic markers or crayons

You may write an uplifting message and put your favorite Scripture quote in the card if you like.

The deadline for the return of signed cards is Sunday, December 3.

Please return completed cards to Tony Pichler in the Parish Office. For any additional information or if you have questions, feel free to contact Tony.

Isaiah: A Prophet For Our Time

Join the discussion that will bring a deeper meaning to Advent.

During the Season of Advent, the liturgical calendar leans on the words of the Prophet Isaiah as we prepare for the celebration of Christmas.

Who is this man and who was he speaking to nearly 750 years before Jesus? How do his messages to the Israelite people speak to us today? Through prayer, video and sharing, enrich your Advent with a deeper understanding of this major prophet.

Whatsoever You Do, Inc. Presents:

The Day Way: A Celebration of Dorothy Day

Wednesday, November 29

7:00 PM

The Whatsoever You Do House of Hospitality
1082 Velp Ave, Green Bay

Dorothy Day has inspired the outreach ministry of Whatsoever You Do, Inc. for nearly twenty years. To honor her and commemorate her death day with prayer, reflection, song, and sharing, we gather as a community to remember her and the lives she has touched through the Catholic Worker Movement and her Houses of Hospitality over these many years since the 1930s. As she makes her way toward sainthood, we lift her up as we remember her mission of love and the works of mercy.

As part of the evening, the first Whatsoever You Do, Inc. Dorothy Day Award will be presented to St. Norbert College professor emeritus, Karina O'Malley, Ph.D. who has emulated Dorothy Day in her work with our homeless brothers and sisters in the Green Bay area for decades.
