Bible Recommendations from Fr. Bob

Good day and God's blessing upon you and yours this 29th week in ordinary time. Today, I would like to take a moment to finish my Bible selection mini-series with some recommendations in case you are thinking about selecting a Bible to read or for a gift. The good news (pun intended) is that we live in a golden age of Bible publication. But, with all the choices available, I thought some specific recommendations might be helpful.

For young Catholic people or people new to the faith, I recommend the Catholic Youth Bible from St. Mary's Press. This Bible has lots of color, fun graphics, and pictures, although I have only seen the paperback version. The Catholic Youth Bible comes in the NAB and RSV translations. The NAB is what we use at Mass, the RSV is a very popular translation, a bit more of a word-for-word translation. The NAB is a balanced translation when considering word-for-word versus thought-for-thought. And yes, the font-size is quite small, no problem for young people, a bit more challenging for young at heart people.

My second Catholic Bible recommendation is for people who have a bit of background when it comes to reading the Bible, and who want a study Bible with lots of wonderful explanatory footnotes and word explanations. This is the Ignatius Catholic Study Bible, recently published as one whole Bible. It is massive in size, but a beautiful storehouse of explanation and illumination of the Bible with the fullness of the Catholic faith in mind as the reader studies. This Bible is an RSV Bible 2nd Catholic Edition. The font size is OK. The notes are a little smaller, still OK but I must take my time.

If you are reading a Bible aloud to a group of people, let us say at a Bible study, then there is no substitute for the Great Adventure Bible, the 13 pt font edition. The large font size makes this Bible ideal for reading out-loud in small group situations. Again, this is an RSV second Catholic edition Bible.

More to come in next week's bulletin.

World Mission

Sunday

Today, every parish across the globe joins together for the only worldwide collection mandated by Canon Law — World Mission Sunday. Your generosity today supports the Pope's missions in more than 1,124 territories where the Church is young or struggling.

This year's theme — "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples" — is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 5:5). Your offering today provides hope where despair too often dominates — through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools.

Thank you for responding with faith, love, and generosity. As Pope Francis told us, "Each of us is a mission on this earth" (Evangelii Gaudium, 273). Together, we share in that mission by ensuring that no one is excluded from the invitation to encounter Christ.

Coats For Kids Collection

Fall is here and as we gear up for the colder months, there are many underprivileged children and families that need a warm coat to get them through the cold winter months.

In 2024, The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay distributed 3,012 coats to children in need. This annual seasonal assistance program exists due to the generosity of the Greater Green Bay community. It is through donations from individuals, churches, businesses, and foundations that we are able to offer this assistance to individuals and families in need.

2025 Coats for Kids Collection dates:
September 22nd - October 23rd.

Proko-Wall Funeral Home is once again proud to be a drop-off site for Coats for Kids. Bring your new or gently used coats to 1630 E. Mason St, Green Bay, during the hours of 9am – 4pm Monday through Friday. There is a drop box in our lobby.
