

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Pentecost Sunday
June 7 & 8, 2025

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:3-4

The Cinderella of the Holy Trinity

"The church needs a more developed pneumatology."

Huh? The church needs better lungs?

This is a quote that was spoken a few times during the recent summit of the National Association for Lay Ministry (NALM). Even though I was there just to record the sessions, I was blessed to be able to hear and be inspired by the words of leaders of our church calling for a more proper theology of, and openness to, the Holy Spirit.

Ah! So that's what pneumatology is: the theological study of the Holy Spirit.

Fancy words for a simple idea. It calls us to be aware of, and listen to, the Holy Spirit more. The third person of the Trinity cannot be the "Cinderella of Theology," as Dutch theologian George Johan Sirks wrote in 1957's Harvard Theological Review. He observed that the Holy Spirit is like Cinderella before meeting Prince Charming, being overlooked and ignored in comparison to the stepsisters of God the Creator and Jesus Christ. Wouldn't you love to see Disney produce that version!

The Holy Spirit is alive and actively participating in our daily lives. We must recognize the forward movement of the Holy Spirit to a full extent and not get in the way. Do we listen and act to where the Holy Spirit is calling us? Sometimes we look so much to the past that we do not allow the movement of the Spirit to propel us forward. In those instances, we miss how the Holy Spirit calls us to go out and spread the Gospel of love.

I know in my own life, when I listen to the Holy Spirit, I find my life is more fulfilled and accomplished. Take this article for example. I didn't know what to write about for the Feast of Pentecost. But through reading and reflecting upon the scriptures for this weekend, fruitful conversations with colleagues, paying attention to signs around me, I feel I have connected with the Holy Spirit to write the words needing to be said. The Holy Spirit doesn't always jump right out and say, "Here I am!" It takes intentional awareness, paying attention, and prayer.

Pentecost reminds us that we are sent forth with the Holy Spirit within us. We cannot be huddled away, living in darkness. We need to open our hearts to the fire of the Holy Spirit and be a light in the world. The fire of the Holy Spirit burns brightly when we use the gifts given to us to strengthen the Kingdom of God in this world. What gifts and fruits of the Spirit do you feel alive in your life? And which ones do you need to fan the flame upon? So, let's put the glass slipper on the Holy Spirit and allow the third person of the Trinity to be fully glorified.

Katie McAllister

Fr. Tom's Farewell Celebration

Resurrection will be celebrating Fr. Tom and thanking him for his six years of "walking" with us on Sunday, June 29th. Our celebration will begin with a 9:30 outdoor liturgy followed by a picnic at 11:00. The picnic is free and open to all parishioners, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the Resurrection Women's Guild.

We will be presenting a thank you gift to Fr. Tom at the end of the Mass. If you would like to participate, please place your donation in an envelope marked "Fr. Tom's gift" and place in the collection baskets or drop off at the parish office.

Please join in prayers of gratitude for the little ones baptized into our family of faith on May 31.
