

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

The Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 2 & 3, 2023

"Underlying every form of work is a concept of the relationship which we can and must have with what is other than ourselves."
Pope Francis

Labor of Love

The Gospel of Jesus never promised us an easy time upon this earth. From the beginning of creation, we have been called to watch over all aspects of creation in such a way that every life would be protected and respected on all levels. With the vast differences that surround us in our world, this is no easy task. This labor of love is the core of Jesus' message to love God in all things as we love our neighbor.

As we celebrate Labor Day this weekend, we should not forget the intention of this holiday. Workers throughout our history have needed some protection in order to live a dignified life that is open to a healthy family life. All work and no play is no fun!

Businesses as well as workers all fall under the spell of greed and control. We need to be constantly reminded of the values our church and world put forth for the common good of all. Pope Francis said: "We do not get dignity from power or money or culture. We get dignity from work." He noted: "Work is fundamental to the dignity of the person. Work, to use an image, 'anoints' with dignity, fills us with dignity, makes us similar to God who has worked and still works, who always acts."

Pope Francis reminds us that work is an 'action of grace' that fills us with dignity and confidence to be and do the work of the gospel in our daily lives. Work gives us purpose to be on a mission to create a life for ourselves, our families and coworkers.

Here at Resurrection Parish, we attempt to balance our lives so that our staff, committee members and volunteers may find purpose in our lives as well as dignity and joy. Pray that we may be a good example to the world around us as we respect the dignity of all in our workforce throughout the world.

Blessings,
Fr. Tom

Fleece Donations for Tie Blankets

The Community Helpers Class at Father Allouez Catholic School is asking for donations of fleece to make tie blankets to donate to "Sleep in Heavenly Peace."

One fleece blanket needs two pieces of 66X90 inch fleece. Each blanket will be made with love by kids and for kids who need a warm blanket.

Thank you for your help in making our first community service project a success!

Please bring all donations to the main church entrance.

Become an Active Member of the Health & Wellness Committee

The Resurrection Health & Wellness Committee is recruiting new members as the committee leadership changes this fall. We welcome Kathy Eisenschink and Katie Dykes as committee co-leaders.

We have some wonderful initiatives planned for this year and would love for you to be a part of the health and wellness of Resurrection!

Come and see what we are all about at our next meeting, Monday, September 18 6:00 PM in the Gathering Area

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to either of the leaders or to Karolyn Efferson.

Weekend Hospitality

Hospitality ministers are needed to serve coffee & bakery on Sunday mornings.
Consider signing up in the Gathering Area.
