

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 18 & 19, 2026

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones
the mysteries of the kingdom.
Cf. Matthew 11:25

Celebrating Birth to Eternal Life

Res has had many graveside prayer services the past month. The ritual and prayers the Catholic Church has created can bring hope in a time of grief. In addition to the prayer ritual, the presider has an opportunity to sow seeds of encouragement with the family: involving those present in prayer, having them bless the casket or urn with holy water, and to invite them to read petition prayers.

Over the years I have witnessed that families who take time for all three funeral rituals: the wake/vigil held the evening prior to the funeral, a funeral/celebration of life at church, followed by the committal/burial at the cemetery can help one advance through the grieving process and to mentally prepare for the journey ahead after loss of a loved one. This process may not work out for everyone, however spiritual healing can grow through these three prayer rituals.

Before departing from the gravesite, I share a personal story. "My wife JoDee and I have three grown children. When the youngest, Lindsay, was pre-school age, JoDee and I had full time jobs. Linz would go to grandpa Pete's house while we worked. When I would pick Linz up, they would cry. Linz wanted to stay with grandpa. Grandpa fed them ice cream for lunch. How could I compete with that? To help Linz transition to going home, grandpa Pete would say..., Linz, it's not good bye...It's see yah later."

At the burial, as a people of faith, we can leave with hope. "It's not good bye....It's see yah later." There is hope that we will all be together as we are birthed into eternal life.
