Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord March 23 & 24, 2024

*Bubbles up
They will point you towards home
No matter how deep or how far you roam
They will show you the surface, the plot and the purpose
So, when the journey gets long
Just know that you are loved
There is light up above
And the joy is always enough
Bubbles up

Bubbles Up

Breath — the very essence of life. From the beginning, God blew the breath of life into us and thus we became living beings. At our birth, we breathe our first breath and continue breathing until that final moment of our earthly life. Many times, we take our breathing for granted and don't think about it, until it becomes a struggle.

Stress and illness can interrupt our ability to breathe. Whether it's caused by something minor like having the wind knocked out of one's lungs, or something more serious like COPD, it's a feeling most of us don't want to experience often. For many of us, stress can cause our breathing patterns to change. That is why it is important to pay attention to our breath when we become stressed, need relaxation, or lose focus.

As Jesus hung on the cross, he struggled to breathe. He knew the physical and mental pain of gasping for air. Before his death, Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. Medically, he died from cardiac and respiratory arrest, but spiritually he gave his very essence to us. He gave his dying breath so that we may live. And yet, was it really the last breath of Christ? No! Death is not the end. Christ's breath continues to give us life, if we breathe it in.

What do we do when we struggle for breath, either physically or spiritually? It's simple! Just inhale through your nose and exhale through your mouth slowly. As you inhale, focus on a word that represents what you ask of God and as you exhale, let go of a word that represents what you are struggling with. Repeat.

Tony and I have been reflecting on the Lenten Gospels through songs on our Auditio Divina podcast. For this weekend's Gospel for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, we chose the song "Bubbles Up" by Jimmy Buffet. This was Jimmy Buffet's last gift of song. It's a hopeful tune that encourages us to keep looking for the light, especially the light and love of God. The lyrics of the song remind us that when we are lost, we just need to breathe and follow the bubbles up. It's by following the bubbles up that we find salvation and peace. We invite you to listen to the podcast on any podcast platform or www.gbres.org/ad.

As we reflect on the Passion of Jesus this weekend, let us unite with Jesus and each other in the pain that we endure on our faith journey. But also let us remember that beyond our breath is the glory of the Resurrection and the love of God.

Divine Mercy Sunday

On April 7, the 2nd Sunday of Easter, we celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy and endeavor to receive the extraordinary graces Our Lord longs to pour out upon the world!

The Feast of Divine Mercy was requested many times by Our Lord in revelations to St. Faustina in the 1930's. It was made an official feast by Pope St. John Paul II on April 30, 2000.

Resurrection will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet 15 minutes before each Mass on April 6 & 7.
