Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 25 & 26, 2025

God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, and entrusting to us the message of salvation.

2 Corinthians 5:19

Bible Recommendations - Part II from Fr. Bob

Are you into art? Is beauty important to you? Do you use your Bible more for reflection than for study? My favorite Bible is the Word-on-Fire Bible, published by Word on Fire. It is a seven-volume Bible with five parts now published and two more to go. The explanations are mainly overviews of complete passages given by saints and theologians down through history with plenty of commentary by Bishop Robert Barron along the way. As I implied, this Bible has lots of art to illuminate the Biblical narrative, as well as explain it. This Bible is in the NRSV translation (a bit more modern sounding than the RSV). It is a bit of an investment as it is in seven parts. This Bible comes in paperback, hardback, and leatherbound editions, priced accordingly. In my opinion, the price is well worth the investment. Biased opinion here, as Bishop Barron was my favorite seminary professor. The website is wordonfire.org

Looking for something unique? The Knox Bible is a unique translation by Fr. Ronald Knox, published in the 1940's and 1950's. He is English so this translation is in modern English, and it sounds very English. This Bible is still popular today, especially in... England! I love this translation, but it is an acquired taste.

Looking for a traditional sounding Catholic Bible? Then the Douay-Rheims Bible may well be for you. If you like a King James sounding Bible, but want a Catholic Bible, this might interest you. This is the Bible that was used at Mass prior to, let us say, 1960.

Looking for a Protestant Bible? My favorites include the CSB Baker Study Bible. It has lots of great commentary, book introductions, charts, maps, and graphics. It is a great all-around study Bible. Unfortunately, it is out of print, but I hear a new edition is coming in the spring of 2026. If I had a Protestant friend who was looking to get into serious Bible study this is the Bible I would recommend, and yes experienced Catholics could read this Bible with great benefit and instruction. The NIV Cultural Background Study Bible is also extremely helpful in understanding the various cultures of the ancient Near East. Finally, the Holy Land Study Bible has tremendous pictures and articles.

So, what is the best Bible for you or for the person for which you are buying? Yes, the one you will read or the one they will read. I hope these three articles help you select your Bible, but most of all whatever Bible you select, I hope you read it. As has been often repeated "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." So happy reading.

Veterans Day Mass & Social

The Marquette Assembly of Knights, along with Fr. Bob Kollath, is hosting a Veterans Day Mass to honor ALL veterans, living & deceased, and their families

All Souls Day - November 2

This year, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day)

falls on Sunday and will replace the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

During each of the weekend Masses, we will remember all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, especially those who have died this past year and whose funerals were celebrated at the parish, a funeral home, or another place of worship. All who have died since late October 2024 will be included in our In Memoriam celebration, reading of the names, and lighting candles in honor of them. When your loved one's name is read, a family member may come forward to light a candle in their honor—a flame of faith and love that endures. An important part of remembering our loved ones is to share the lives they lived, so you are invited to bring a photo or memento to place on the table in the entry way, next to the ramp leading into the church. Following each Mass join us in the Gathering Area for a light social.

Old Organ Silent. New Organ Coming Soon!

Our New Rodgers Imagine 359T Organ will be installed Nov. 7 & 8. The first notes will be heard at all weekend Masses November 8 & 9.

Rodgers' organ expert, Peggy D. Bartunek, will play 15 minutes of prelude music before all Masses (come early to enjoy!) and accompany many songs during the Masses, ending with a "showstopper" postlude after the last song.

Peggy will train our Res accompanists on the new organ on Sunday afternoon, November 9th.

We are grateful to Robert Bauer for his donation in memory of his wife, Joanne. And we are so very excited!

As November approaches, many of us look forward to gathering with family and friends around the Thanksgiving table. Yet, for some of our neighbors, the dinner table is empty. Hope Center Pantry is dedicated to helping those struggling with food insecurity, and we are so grateful that you are committed to helping us fulfill this mission.

Currently, we are urgently in need of large-sized cereal boxes and canned fruit. Every donation of any kind makes a real difference. Thank you for partnering with us to stock our shelves and provide nourishment to our community. God's blessings to all.

Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA

Our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years.

The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese.

The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment.

To learn more about the AMS, go to
