Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-Third Weekend in Ordinary Time
November 12 & 13, 2022

Another Year Has Come and Gone

As some of you know, my favorite holiday of the year is Halloween—for lots of reasons! An annual tradition that I enjoy is watching It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown which came out when I was three years old in 1966. At the end of the holiday classic, Charlie Brown turns to Linus and says: "Well, another Halloween has come and gone."

The same can be said of this weekend—the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Another Church Year is coming to an end. What has changed in our lives over this past year? How have we grown in our faith? How have we grown in our love for God and one another?

Another election season has come and gone as well. No more commercials on TV and the radio (at least for a month!) No more texts and phone calls from unfamiliar numbers. No more stress at the rising political tension and division that has torn at the fabric of our community and country.

In the first reading for this weekend, the prophet Malachi reminds the Israelites that "there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays." Healing. That is what our community and country need. That is what we all need.

St. Paul alludes to the divisions in the community at Thessalonica when he writes his Second Letter to the Thessalonians. He says: "We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others." There were divisions 2,000 years ago in the Christian community in need of "the healing rays of justice" as it is today.

Finally, Jesus notes the division that is going to happen as the world comes to an end. He states: "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed." Knowing that some of us have a little more hair to lose than others (some are trying to compensate with the No Shave November!), these words are both comforting and a challenge.

In the end, we are not Republican vs. Democrats. We are not Liberals vs. Conservatives. We are believers in the one who came to bring "the sun of justice with its healing rays." The Son of Justice leads us to be sons and daughters of justice, peace, unity and love. As we begin a new Church Year in the coming weeks with Advent, we strive again to make it so.

The Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA Triannual National Collection

Every three years, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops authorize a nationwide collection on or near Veterans' Day in November for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS).

The AMS relies solely on private donors in support of its mission "serving those who serve" and its ministry to provide the same pastoral care and services to Catholics serving in all six branches of the US Armed Forces, enrolled in Military Academies, or undergoing treatment at any of the VA Medical Centers.

Fr. Michael Dory and Fr. Matt Faucett of the Diocese of Green Bay currently serve in the AMS as active chaplains;
 Fr. Patrick Costello is scheduled for active duty in 2024.

Please see the attached envelope, return it anytime throughout the month of November; please note the online giving options as well. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of this collection and the people it serves and may we continue to work for peace and justice in our world so that war and armed conflict might never take another life.

Dear Friends,

As you know Resurrection is currently participating in Block IV of the one by One campaign along with 46 other parishes within the Diocese. This campaign will have a positive impact on the lives of children, clergy, and families across the Diocese of Green Bay and allow all parishes, including ours, to address important local needs.

Resurrection will benefit from one by One and has a goal of $1,410,000. Of this amount, 50 percent will remain at our parish to meet locally identified needs.

Please join your fellow parishioners at a reception this weekend after Mass to learn more about the campaign and how you can Participate.

You will be receiving materials in the mail that you can bring to the reception. If you have already received pledge materials and want to discuss your contribution, this is a great opportunity to do so!

May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly.
