Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord May 28 & 29, 2022

Hands of Blessing for All

"Lifting up his hands, he blessed them." On this Ascension Day, the hands of Jesus caught my attention. He uses his hands to bestow a blessing upon disciples.

If we look back over the gospels, we see numerous times in which Jesus used his hands in blessing people. He touched the sick and healed them of various diseases. He cast out demons and liberated the afflicted. He raised the dead and fed thousands with the bread of life. He rescued the disciples who were afraid. He welcomed the children. He embraced the unaccepted. Are these not amazing hands?

Images of the the Ascension of Jesus portray him with outstretched arms in blessing over the mission of the Church and on Pentecost he bestowed upon us the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

In today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the disciples were asked, "Why are you standing there looking at the sky." We are reminded we cannot sit idly waiting for him to return. We have been blessed by him and are now called to go and bless others with our own hands. We are to be inclusive. We are to comfort the afflicted, heal the sick, feed the hungry, welcome all in their differences. Now the question is, how will we be Christ and use our hands this week to bless and accept others?

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Book Drive

All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. A bed is a basic need for the proper physical, emotional, and mental support a child needs but too many children in our community go without one.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace is an organization dedicated to building and delivering bunk beds to children in need.

Resurrection parishioner Mackenzie is only 11 years old and isn't able to help build beds yet; but she still wants to help. Mackenzie believes every kid that receives bed should also receive a bedtime story.

Resurrection is invited to donate new children's books to support Mackenzie's cause. A collection box is located in the Greeting Area, near the main church doors.
