Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Solemnity of The Epiphany of the Lord January 3 & 4, 2026

We saw his star
at its rising
and have come to do him homage.

Matthew 2:2

THE NEW YEAR

Is it a fresh start or is it simply another page on a wall calendar? Every New Year's Day, we look at the new calendar (or our smartphones), and the thought may come that 52 weeks have passed since the last year turned. It is a new year, seemingly fresh with chances to renew and start over.

It's interesting that this time of year typically has us looking ahead – to what will happen and how we can shape the future to our benefit. It is usually an exercise in futility. The belief that if only we work hard enough, if only we take the right supplements or start the right exercise workout, we will achieve – what? That is the nub of it: what is it we are really seeking?

The problem is, it isn't the future we're trying to control – it's the past. It is mostly our past that has made us who we are today. And the past cannot be changed; it can only be re-interpreted. What is going on is the illusion that we can have the desired life (better health, bigger bank account, job success) by sheer willpower and hard work. Instead of relying on marketing and material things to give us the guidance and success we seek, let's rely on God to continue to provide for and guide us in the New Year.

The truth is, we would not be seeing a new year if it weren't for God providing for us in the first place. How about beginning our new year with a healthy dose of gratitude? Instead of seeking a better life, how about trying to become a better person? We don't need costly diets or self-help apps. All we need do is think of how much we all have been given, regardless of our circumstances, and then thank God for it every day.

Instead of a daily dose of some green health drink, how about a daily regimen of prayer? Instead of working harder to climb the corporate ladder, how about spending some time helping others in need? So often, we think it is all up to us. In fact, without recognizing God as a real person guiding us, we are in danger of a sort of “Groundhog Day” movie in our lives: letting the weeks and months go by as we push for success, only to find ourselves back at another January and yet another year gone by. Talk with the Lord every day. Rely on God. Make getting closer to God your New Year’s Resolution and you’ll never regret it!
