Cast the Net!

Jesus' advice of 'cast the net' is the most spiritually, psychologically, and socially sound basis for wellness we can find in the scriptures. No matter what we are doing, casting a net outside of ourselves always brings in the goodness of life we deserve.

This weekend our children are receiving their First Communion. It is a joy to see smiling faces looking expectantly toward heaven as they rejoice in receiving Jesus in the sacrament for the first time. They have practiced well - thank you Carolyn and Rosemary - and are now ready to 'cast their little nets' spiritually toward Jesus. Thank you parents for your spiritual guidance.

As a pastor, I am always looking to 'cast my nets' into the world to discover gifted and talented people to join our staff. When Deacon Kevin DeCleene discussed leaving St. Norbert College Parish as Parish Leader, I saw the opportunity to 'drag' him into our fold. Kevin brings great experiences in industry, parish administration, and pastoral outreach. Through discussion, we arrived at a job description that will continue Resurrection's growth in activity and vibrancy. Kevin brings a spiritual hunger and intense energy, of which I can't keep up with. He will challenge us to reach out in ways we have not yet attempted. Kevin will begin in August, as he continues to serve at 'Old St. Joes' through June.

People may be curious as to why we need another deacon. The difference is Kevin will be coming on board as a full time staff person. Deacon Mike, Deacon Don and Deacon Roger are senior deacons, meaning they are retired and offer what they can to us. They do a great job in what they do. Deacon Kevin will be more involved in our everyday work, as well as expanding our outreach pastorally. Thank you to all of our deacons!

We look forward to your presence Deacon Kevin!

Easter Blessings,
Fr. Tom
