Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Sixteenth Weekend in Ordinary Time

July 16 & 17, 2022

Choose the Better Part

Getting slightly older these days, I can't help but look back over my life and wonder what my life may have been like if I had chosen other options. This is a helpful process to pray with at times, but I always remind myself to be grateful for the path I, and the Holy Spirit, did choose for myself. I love my life!!!

Mary and Martha were with Jesus as they each chose to go with their strengths. Martha was clearly the one with the hospitality gene and Mary was the one who could sit in conversation in a welcoming manner; both were important for the good of their guest. Without this way of dividing responsibilities, both Martha and Mary would have been anxious and worried. Jesus appreciates what both had been doing; each serving in their own way. Each were reaching out in what was comfortable for them.

The 'rub' comes when Martha gets envious of Mary. Martha knew they needed to eat and drink and yet why did she have to do all the work? This was a very familiar argument in my family growing up! And I am sure I was the one doing all the work!! 😊

What Jesus saw in this discussion was Mary being in the best place for her at that moment. She knew her heart needed to listen to this man of great wisdom. She was drawn to him; such a great example for all of us. Maybe Martha needed that time as well to listen to Jesus but her response was not in line with what Jesus calls us to do in our lives.

What choices have you made which are in line with the presence of Jesus? What choices did you make that kept you from straying from Jesus' path? What choices do you regret making or not making? How grateful are you to have made choices that brought you to be who you are today? That is the gift of life God offers to each of us on our life journey.

Summer blessings,
Fr. Tom

Introducing Resurrection's New App for your Mobile Devices

This app was built for the members of Resurrection to stay connected with the parish and one another.

Members can post to message boards, see announcement slides, read the bulletin, watch videos, sign up for events, contact the parish, and more!

After downloading the app on your Apple or Android device, you can create free account so as to interact.

Download the App by searching "Resurrection Catholic Parish" in your device's app store or scan this QR code.

If you need help or have any questions or suggestions, please contact Katie at kmcallister@gbres.org or call the parish office.

Celebrate the Apostle to the Apostles

NEWomen and Resurrection's Disciples Groups present a prayer service honoring Mary of Magdala, the "Apostle to the Apostles." She offers contemporary women a challenge to let their voices be heard on timely issues of our modern world.
