

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-Second Weekend in Ordinary Time
November 5 & 6, 2022

Okolona Update

Last October, Sr. Liz Brown, CSJ and Sr. Nancy Schreck, OSF visited Resurrection Parish to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the covenantal relationship between the Excel Program in Okolona, Mississippi and Resurrection Parish. Sr. Liz and Sr. Nancy provided an overview of the progress that has been made in this impoverished Southern community with the presence of the sisters and their many volunteers, and with the help of this generous parish.

One year later, Resurrection and Excel has entered a new chapter. With shared conversation between Sr. Liz, Sr. Nancy, Fr. Tom, and me, we have concluded:

1. Excel continues to be a vital presence in the life of the Okolona community.
2. Resurrection Catholic Parish, with its mission to love all of God's people all of the time, seeks to continue to assist the Excel Program in any way possible.
3. Sr. Liz and Sr. Nancy will continue to count on the Resurrection when volunteers are necessary to rehabilitate, fix up, or provide maintenance for buildings which Excel operates. We are "on call" whenever they need us!
A great example of this was the team from Resurrection, who journeyed to Okolona last February, converted an old home into a women's shelter.
4. Monetary donations are a continual need in order for the sisters to accomplish their mission in Okolona. Whereas we will not have a formal presentation and a second collection as in previous years, donations are always accepted. You may give online at gbres.weshareonline.org or make checks to Resurrection with the Excel Program written on the memo line.

As a visible sign of the continual relationship, our next Town Hall Meeting on Wednesday, November 16 at 6:30 p.m. will feature Sr. Liz and Sr. Nancy via Zoom discussing "What Scripture Says About...Economics and How We Are Called to Share". You won't want to miss this memorable evening either in person at the parish or online via our parish website at gbres.org/live or our Facebook page.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 states: "There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every affair under the heavens." Now is the time to continue to support Sr. Liz and Sr. Nancy as they build the Kingdom of God in Okolona. And while the covenantal relationship may have altered slightly based on the needs of the sisters and their community, Okolona will continue to hold a special place in the heart of Resurrection as it seeks to build the Kingdom of God locally, regionally, nationally, and globally. Res is on mission.

Vocation Awareness Week

November 6-12

We firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, some to religious life, and some to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations and teaching young people how to discern God's call is a serious and joyful duty.

During this week, please encourage the young people in your life to be open to the vocation God calls them to.

Dear Friends,

As you know, Resurrection is currently participating in Block IV of the one by One campaign along with 46 other parishes within the Diocese. This campaign will have a positive impact on the lives of children, clergy, and families across the Diocese of Green Bay and allow all parishes, including ours, to address important local needs.

Resurrection will benefit from one by One and has a goal of $1,410,000. Of this amount, 50 percent will remain at our parish to meet locally identified needs.

Please join your fellow parishioners at a reception during the week on Thursday, November 10th, November 12th, or November 13th to learn more about the campaign and how you can participate.

You will be receiving materials in the mail that you can bring to the reception. If you have already received pledge materials and want to discuss your contribution, this is a great opportunity to do so!

May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly.

A BETTER KIND OF POLITICS

Civilize It

Examination of Conscience

Loving Our Neighbors in the Public Square

Pope Francis reminds us that in the Gospel of Matthew we are called to be “salt of the earth and light of the world.”

“Although there are many reasons to be discouraged, amid many prophets of destruction and condemnation, and so many negative and despairing voices, may you be a positive force, salt and light for this society. Like the engine of a train, may you be the driving force leading all towards their destination. May you be sowers of hope, builders of bridges and agents of dialogue and harmony.”

- Pope Francis, Message during Apostolic Journey,
April 29, 2017

Similarly, in his encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis writes:

“In imitation of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, ‘we want to be a Church that serves, that leaves home and goes forth from its places of worship, goes forth from its sacristies, in order to accompany life, to sustain hope, to be the sign of unity... to build bridges, to break down walls, to sow seeds of reconciliation.’”

- Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 276

How are we each called to be “salt and light”? What does it look like to be “builders of bridges,” breakers of walls, and “agents of dialogue,” especially in an atmosphere where vitriol and personal attacks have become more common? How do Pope Francis’ words challenge us to engage differently? Through prayer and reflection, formed consciences and honest dialogue, we can bring the convictions of our faith to our participation in civic life, and in our communities.

Use this reflection to help you think about where God is calling you to be “salt and light” in your family and community, and in your engagement online. Where can you better engage in encounter and bridge-building?

Begin with Scripture and Prayer

Begin by reading Matthew 5:13-16 on the call to be salt and light.

As “salt and light” we are called to speak truth with love and bear witness to God’s love in our world. Salt is both common across the world’s cultures and gives flavor to any food it touches. Our presence, like salt to food, enhances and strengthens our communities, especially where we can serve as witnesses of love and civility.

Then pray asking God to be present with you during this time of reflection. The Prayer for Life and Dignity of the Human Person is a good option.

Now spend some time in prayerful reflection using the prompts below.

What stories from my community have left an impression on me and led me to ask, “What can I do to change this?” Where have

A polarized Church. A divided nation.
Pope Francis calls for “a better kind of politics.”
How will you respond?

Visit this link to find The Prayer for Life & Dignity of the Human Person: www.usccb.org/prayers/life-and-dignity-human-person-prayer

“All of us have a responsibility for the wounded, those of our own people and all the peoples of the earth.”

- Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 79

I been called to action? What issues or injustices have I felt drawn to work on in my community?

In the past, how have I engaged or disengaged in efforts to address issues I care about, including through engagement in the political process as a faithful citizen? What has drawn me towards or away from engagement?

What perspectives on issues impacting our local and global communities elicit strong negative reactions in me? What is at the root of that feeling or why do I feel the way I do?

When have I allowed that strong feeling to cause me to say or think something unkind about another person? Specifically:

- On social media: When has my engagement with (or about) those with whom I disagree failed to recognize their dignity as persons created in the image of God?
- In conversations: When was I so focused on winning an argument that I failed to genuinely listen? When was my choice of words uncharitable? When did I paint others in disrespectful ways or engage in personal attack?
- In my day-to-day perceptions and attitudes: When have I made assumptions about or failed to give the benefit of the doubt to those with whom I disagree? When have I presumed others' intentions or experiences before even hearing their stories or experiences? When have I valued my political affiliation or party more than my identity as a disciple of Christ who is called to model love and charity, even in civil discourse?

How is Christ calling me to strive to recognize the human dignity of someone with whom I disagree—even passionately?

Close with Prayer

Close with a few moments of prayer and conversation with God about how you might be called to be “salt and light” in your family, parish, school, workplace, or other community (in-person or online).

We exist in a culture of incivility and inaction, but as followers of Christ we must work to transform that culture. We can be models of loving and respectful civil discourse, and challenge others to do the same. We can build community through our willingness to engage in dialogue across differences. Salt, while common, is not a passive ingredient. Nor must we be passive participants in difficult conversations. In working to transform our culture, we can choose to be strong in our convictions while also open to learning more from others' experiences.

How are you called to share your faith with your community?
