

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Eighth Weekend in Ordinary Time
October 9 & 10, 2021

Res On Mission!

As the new Diocesan Director of Youth Ministry in 1994, I remember when I led a group to the first Young Neighbors in Action experience in Harford, CT. All of us, both teenagers and adults, had a life-changing conversion experience as most of us truly heard and experienced the Gospel and Catholic Social Teaching, often for the first time. Our faith was lived out in community, amongst the poor and vulnerable in a very economically diverse city. When we came back, there was one girl who wanted to take today's Gospel reading at its face value and give all of her possessions to the poor. Her mother called me up and was concerned that the girl would not have anything left in her closet to wear to school that week! We called an emergency meeting of the 15 people who had made the journey and attempted to put our experience into context. While we do need clothes (and other necessities) to live, we can be challenged to live more simply. From then on, whenever we went on a service immersion trip with young people, we talked about the ways to live more simply—short of selling every stitch of clothing that they own.

This week's Gospel IS challenging! It is harder for a rich person to enter into heaven than it is for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle? This Gospel does not actually make us feel all warm and cozy inside. It is challenging! But it seems that there are two keys to Mark's Gospel passage. First, it might not be possible for US to enter into heaven by what we have or what we do. But as the Gospel reminds us again, all things are possible with God. Secondly, Jesus reminds us that when we are generous—when we no longer have our possessions as our top priorities—we inherit much more in the eternal life to come.

Over these past few weeks, the Resurrection Parish community has had the opportunity to live this Gospel passage. With your help, three truckloads and a large trailer filled to the brim with new clothes were delivered to Camp McCoy for the Afghan refugees who are temporarily living there. The parish served as a storage site for some of these items and parish volunteers were the ones who made the packing and hauling of the items possible.

In the coming weeks, we have another opportunity to live the Gospel. On October 23, our country celebrates National Make a Difference Day. Locally, we would like to make a difference for those seniors in our parish who are finding it difficult to accomplish the fall clean-up duties that they were once able to perform. If you are one of those seniors who needs a hand, please call the parish office and let us know. If you are a household or individual who can help to perform the fall clean-up duties for our seniors, please let us know as well. It is harder for a camel to enter the eye of a needle than it is for a rich person to enter into the eternal kingdom of heaven. But with God, all things are possible. Res is on mission! Let's journey together toward the reign of God.

October Town Hall: Beginning with Honor, Ending with Dignity

Tuesday, October 12
6:30 PM

This month, Resurrection is focusing on the Life and Dignity of the Human Person.

Our Catholic Social Teachings emphasize that every life has dignity, from the womb to the tomb. Join another edition of Resurrection's Town Hall series to learn more about two organizations that live these words daily:

Love Life Ministry and Unity Hospice

Join us live in church or online at www.gbres.org/live.
You may also watch on-demand anytime at

Res Makes a Difference!

On Saturday, October 23 the country celebrates National Make a Difference Day, engaging people of all ages in service to our neighbor.

Are you a senior who needs some fall clean-up done (e.g. leaf raking, brush removal, flower beds tended to)?

Are you a household or individual who could help seniors with these fall clean-up tasks?

Please contact Tony Pichler in the parish office by October 15 if you'd like to partake in this day.

Let's continue to make a difference Resurrection Parish!

What is Stewardship?

Stewardship is Sharing our Talents!

The article this week was written for teaching children, but it's a great practice for adults as well!

How Do We Do That?

See that God has given many blessings
(This also teaches good self-esteem)

- Challenge yourself and others to make a list of all God's gifts to them! (Hint: no wrong answers!)
- Regularly compliment others on their special gifts – simple things like nice handwriting, a pretty smile, a nice coat to keep you warm, etc. Remind them that this special gift is a blessing from God and offers an idea of how they can be grateful or share that gift with someone else.
- Encourage others to recognize their talents and the talents of other people in their lives. Every talent does not have to be star quality. Talents can be simple - such as strong to carry a box, smart to help someone with homework, a good listener for someone with a problem.
