

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

The Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time September 9 & 10, 2023

“God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.”
2 Corinthians 5

We Remember

On Monday we remember the morning of September 11, 2001. It is hard to believe that it is already twenty-two years since that tragic morning. Who doesn't remember where they were, especially upon hearing about the first plane crashing into the World Trade Center, and then, for many of us, seeing live the second crash. So many lives were lost! And for what?

Beyond the horrific sites of the Twin Towers crumbling to the ground with hundreds of people inside, the one aspect of September 11, 2001, that I remember most was how people came together. We prayed together. We respectfully shared our thoughts and feelings. There was a sense of unity amongst our diversity as a nation.

Now, 22 years later, that unity seems to have become divided beyond repair. But it is not the first time we have experienced this division, both as a country and as a Church. In terms of our universal faith community, we only need to look at such monumental divisive times as the first century Church discerning whether to accept Gentiles. Or the Church of the 1500s enduring the Reformation. Or now, into our more recent times, the division that occurred during, and shortly after, Vatican II as our Church leaders made dramatic changes to the liturgy, governance, and almost all aspects of Church life.

How do we overcome division? In our reading from Matthew's Gospel this weekend, Jesus lays out a well-thought out, and time-tested, process. When you have an issue with a neighbor, the idea isn't to run to another neighbor and triangulate in sharing your frustrations. No! The process includes going directly to the person affected first. Then, if resolution is not possible, a third party may need to be called into the conversation. Finally, if the issue is still not resolved, you may need to bring it to the larger community. This is a loving process—a healing process.

Healing divisions is not easy. Yet, later in Matthew's Gospel we are reminded that “where two or three are gathered together in Jesus' name, He is there in our midst.” All things are possible with God—even seemingly unsolvable division. Let us love one another—especially as we remember the 2,977 victims of September 11, 2001.

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with us!

Psalms: The School of Prayer

At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms: prayers from God that help us learn to pray. The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them. Jesus himself prayed them. Every heartfelt human emotion can be found in the 150 Psalms.

These sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us. Their words capture the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God. This mini-course will help you understand their origin, authorship, purpose, and how to pray them today. Come to one session or all six!

Thank you to everyone you donated to the Back to School Hunger Collection. Over 3,000 granola bars were collected for high students in East De Pere, Green Bay, and West De Pere School Districts.

Also, a carload of school supplies and snacks were collected in partnership with Samaritan's Heart Mission Church for Tank and Fort Howard Schools.

Resurrection thanks everyone who participated, especially the Father Allouez Catholic School 5th graders who helped organize and count the granola bars.

Thank You

Fleece Donations for Tie Blankets

The Community Helpers Class at Father Allouez Catholic School is asking for donations of fleece to make tie blankets to donate to "Sleep in Heavenly Peace."

One fleece blanket needs two pieces of 66X90 inch fleece. Each blanket will be made with love by kids and for kids who need a warm blanket.

Thank you for your help in making our first community service project a success! Please bring donations or checks made out to Father Allouez School to the main church entrance.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Book Drive

Resurrection continues to collect new children's books to support Sleep in Heavenly Peace. A collection box is located near the main church doors, and in the Door #9 vestibule, the office door facing Delahaut.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace is an organization dedicated to building and delivering bunk beds to children in need. Resurrection parishioner Mackenzie is only 12 years old and isn't able to help build beds yet; but she still wants to help. Mackenzie believes every child that receives a bed should also receive a bedtime story.
