Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Seventh Weekend in Ordinary Time
October 1 & 2, 2022

October is RESPECT LIFE month. As fall is once again upon us it is a beautiful time to reflect and pray over the many ways we are grateful for life in all its gifts and variances. In God's eyes all of life is beautiful and needs to be respected. To imitate God and see all of creation through God's eyes, we need a deep faith that is strong enough to move mountains.

Like Habakkuk and the apostles in our readings this weekend, we look to God and demand, DO SOMETHING! Jesus in so many different ways in the Gospels responds, "Are you waiting for God to set the table for you? What makes you think it's time for you to sit down and for God to take over?"

We can all live our lives through word and deed in ways that respect all of God's creation. No matter who we meet, how they are living their lives today or what 'crazy thoughts' they may proclaim, because they are 'of God,' there is always a seed of faith and truth that is to be found.

Especially during this month of October, may we pray with open eyes and hearts to God's presence from the moment we are conceived to the moment we take our last breath.

Fall blessings,
Fr. Tom

Small Group Series:

Be Like Jesus - Live Like Jesus

How do you encounter Jesus? How might you make an impact in our world by becoming more like Him?

The Be Like Jesus - Live Like Jesus series was designed to be a simple step on a path to building a relationship with Jesus, influencing our families, and impacting communities with His love and peace. Each week we will explore a characteristic of Jesus through scripture, video, and discussion. Join the group in the Gathering Area for one of the two optional meeting times.

Wanted: Blankets, Sleeping Bags, and Tarps

Over the past six weeks a group of Resurrection Parish volunteers has provided a positive presence for our brothers and sisters who are currently experiencing homelessness through the StreetLights Outreach Program sponsored by Whatsoever You Do, Inc.

With the falling temperatures and early darkness, blankets, sleeping bags, and tarps are needed. Do you have any of these items taking up space in your closets?

Please bring them to the Gathering Space during the month of October and place on the cart marked "Blankets for the Homeless." Christ on the streets reminds us that: "I was cold and you provided me with warmth!"

a Catholic campaign to transform communities.

Dear Friends,

Just as Jesus called His first disciples to follow Him, one by One, He is calling each of us. The one by One campaign will help grow the next generation of our Church by investing in our schools, faith formation, and more throughout northeastern Wisconsin.

I would like to thank those families who have already pledged to the campaign. Your gift will make a significant impact on the generations to come in both the Diocese of Green Bay and locally at Resurrection.

May God Bless you and your loved ones.

Thank you,

Father Tom Reynebeau
