

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Second Sunday of Ordinary Time
January 13 & 14, 2024

Being a Christian is less about cautiously avoiding sin than about courageously and actively doing God's will.
Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Here I Am, Lord. I Come to Do Your Will

As a senior in college at St. John's University, I was an intern at a local parish in St. Cloud, MN, coordinating the First Eucharist program for the second graders. One of the first aspects of the program that needed to be organized and implemented was a parent meeting, to inform parents of the various parts of the program. The orientation session was held in the church. There were nearly 100 people in attendance. As I began the meeting, my knees were shaking, my voice was quivering, and I was a nervous wreck. I do not think anyone past the first three pews heard anything I said. The next day, the choir director sat down with me and talked about breathing and how to project my voice. But beyond being heard, I was not sure that church work was for me. Yet, later that spring, the Director of Religious Education and the pastor asked if I would take on the role of Youth Coordinator the next fall, because the current person was leaving the parish at the end of the school year. I was being called. But was I the right person for the position? Ultimately, I answered that call and, as they say, the rest is history as I have served in the Church for nearly 40 years now.

In this weekend's readings, there are two classic "calling" stories: Samuel being called by God, and Andrew, John, and Peter being called to follow Jesus. In the first story, Samuel goes to Eli after being called by God, thinking that Eli is calling. After a couple of times, Eli instructs Samuel to respond to God that he is listening, and ready to do God's will. In John's Gospel, Andrew and an unnamed disciple, thought to be John, are told by John the Baptist that Jesus is the Lamb of God, the promised One. They immediately follow and convince Peter to do the same.

What about us? What are we being called to? I know two things: callings come in many ways and for most of us they do not stop. If we are open to these moments of grace, we are constantly being called to use our gifts and talents for the building of the Reign of God. And if you are like me, you sometimes question whether you have the adequate and appropriate gifts to be successful in what you are being called to do or be. Yet, God is calling, through the many people and situations that we encounter every day. Are we listening? Here I am, Lord. I come to do your will!

Res for Life!

Do you have children's clothing in your closets and dresser drawers just taking up space? With the New Year what a great time to declutter and benefit a couple of very worthy causes at the same time.

The Alexandrina Pregnancy Center and the House of Hope Shelter for young moms both need of winter clothing for children ages infant to 5 years old. Gently used, non-stained clothing items, particularly warm clothing, socks and winter jackets are needed. Collection boxes will be at each entrance of the church.

Monetary donations are also welcome either on the WeShare portion of the parish website or by sending a check, written to Resurrection Parish, to the parish office indicating "Children's Clothing" on the memo line. Please direct any questions to Tony Pichler. We are Res for Life! Walking With Moms in Need!

Revealed: Resurrection's Podcast

Where do you see God in your everyday life? Do you have 20 minutes twice a month to explore how God is revealed daily in our lives? If you haven't listened to the Revealed Podcast, it's time to check it out!

Revealed is a podcast produced by Resurrection and to help listeners in seeking sacred in ordinary life. It is hosted by Katie McAllister & Tony Pichler.

The bi-monthly episodes feature a rotation of interviews with people who reveal "the holy" in their life, spotlights organizations that people could get involved to discover the sacredness in that organization's work, and discussions of spiritual practices.

Listen to Revealed at www.gbres.org/podcast or search "Revealed Resurrection Parish" on Apple Podcasts, Google Podcasts, and Spotify.

No worries, join when you can.

Have You Given Spiritual Direction a Try?

You should because we're not meant to explore our spirituality alone. We're much better together.

Spiritual Direction is a practice some call holy listening. It is help given by a trained Spiritual Director through a confidential, ongoing conversation. It is a relationship between the Director and the one being directed as well as an encounter with God that both individuals participate together. The purpose of the relationship is for the one being directed to grow closer in their relationship with God.

In short, it's an opportunity to let someone mentor you in developing a relationship with God.

For more information or to be paired with a Spiritual Director, contact Tony Pichler at tpichler@gbres.org or 920-336-7768 ext 125
