Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Fifth Weekend of Easter
May 14 & 15, 2022

Formation of the Early Christian Church

As the Easter season continues, we see the early church forming in Acts. The issue of whether Gentiles first need to become Jews to follow Christ is slowly being decided based on very young tradition and the needs of the moment. We believe these things to be guided by the Holy Spirit, working through the early church in the decisions of Paul, Barnabas, and the elders.

They are making the best decisions they can at any given moment, in the hopes they can keep their growing flock together and live as Jesus instructed. What they end up doing is creating a foundational tradition written down by Luke, including the canon of the New Testament, and which established church teaching.

Paul and Barnabas were probably not making decisions with the weight of 2000 years on their shoulders. They thought Jesus would return any minute, and so they had better keep everything in order. The modern church is built upon very human decisions, guided by the Holy Spirit, made by the early church out of their challenges and concerns.

What can we learn from this development? Among other things, the same Holy Spirit that kept the early church making baby steps is still with us today in our world. Secondly, Vatican II called us back to this early formation and trust in the people of God that did the best they could to follow God in spite of their lived experience in the world. Is that not what we are called to do today?

Our world has evolved tremendously from what it was 2000 years ago and of course 10,000 years ago. Our understanding of life has grown. Our ability to communicate has exponentially multiplied. Our problems are more complex and have more drastic consequences today. What has not changed? Our desire to love and be loved. Our desire to be a community of faith that draws us together in the Holy Spirit.

"This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." Sounds simple and yet it is very challenging in our world today. Do ALL know that you are a disciple of Jesus? Is our main goal in life to LOVE ONE ANOTHER?

Blessings,
Fr. Tom

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Book Drive

All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. A bed is a basic need for the proper physical, emotional, and mental support a child needs but too many children in our community go without one.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace is an organization dedicated to building and delivering bunk beds to children in need.

Resurrection parishioner Mackenzie is only 11 years old and isn't able to help build beds yet; but she still wants to help. Mackenzie believes every kid that receives a bed should also receive a bedtime story.

Resurrection is invited to donate new children's books to support Mackenzie's cause. A collection box is located in the Greeting Area, near the main church doors.
