Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

July 6 & 7, 2024

Set Me on My Feet

Have you ever been “set on your feet?” There are many times when a toddler is set on their feet. A person going into the workforce in some fashion is “set on their feet” as they accept their new job. I remember feeling a bit on edge as I was “set on my feet” at my ordination!

I cannot imagine what Ezekiel the prophet felt when he was called to confront Israel with the news from Yahweh that their God was not too happy with their rebellion. To make it worse, Yahweh warns Ezekiel that Israel is hard of face and obstinate of heart, therefore he shouldn't expect the news to be taken lightly - to be prepared for scorn and rejection. Yet, interestingly, Yahweh insists that they at least hear the Word!

Often times, I especially hear grandparents speak of family issues that arise. They don't know how to approach them in a way that does not split the family and yet addresses the issue. Not getting married in the church, grandchildren not getting baptized, abusive situations that are unhealthy, are just a few issues seen in families. I hear their love for their families, and I hear their conscience pushing them to speak up in a prophetic manner. As we are celebrating the birth of our nation, how are we to be prophetic in holding on to the ideals we hold as a nation that brings life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness to all citizens.

Ezekiel gives us a perspective that “sets us on our feet.” The bottom line is that we show up! Yahweh's understanding of the situation was not that Israel would be completely transformed in a single moment by Ezekiel's pronouncement. Yahweh took the long view of life, one message of hope at a time, a consistent reminder of who we are as a people of God. The effort it takes to step forward with courage and compassion is noticed by all. That is giving witness to truth and a loving relationship.

May we be “set on our feet” this week to witness to God's presence.

Summer Blessings,
Fr. Tom

We are delighted to announce the return of our beloved summer outdoor Masses at Resurrection Parish! Let the warm sun and gentle breeze enhance your worship experience as we come together to celebrate the Eucharist.

Sunday, July 21, 2024 at 10:30 AM

Sunday, August 25, 2024 at 10:30 AM

Remember to bring your own lawn chair, and in case of inclement weather, we'll move indoors to the church. Let's make these summer Masses a time of spiritual renewal and community connection!

Volunteers Needed

Do you know of a volunteer that could support our campus 1-2 hours per week? We are looking for people to help spread mulch on our birms and prune shrubs. We will gather every Thursday from 8-10 am July 11 through July 25. The Spade Brigade also needs help with shrubs, flowers and overall lawn care.

Contact the parish office or drop a name in the collection.

Happy Listening!

Bicycles Needed

Spokes of Hope, a program by Whatsoever You Do, Inc., urgently needs your help! As you shop area rummage and garage sales, keep an eye out for affordable bikes to purchase and donate. Spokes of Hope is experiencing a low selection of gently used adult bikes that can be repaired with new tires, tubes, adjusted brakes, or other simple adjustments for those who lack reliable transportation.

Contact Tony for more information on collection options.

Be The Light Walk is an evening event of inspiration and hope that together we can prevent suicide and reduce stigma. This fundraising event supports suicide prevention in Brown County.

The event begins with a Resource Fair with live music from 7000apart, followed by firefighter, recording artist, and mental health advocate Sean Elsten.

Throughout the event, we will reflect on the reality of suicide and remember those we have lost. The evening concludes with a beautiful 1-mile candlelight walk with Luminaries to light the path.
