

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

The Ascension of the Lord May 20 & 21, 2023

Ascending Home

Remember the last time you had to say a significant goodbye? Who prepared you? Were there reassurances of what was to come for you or a loved one? Letting go of our fear is what allows us to ascend to new life in community.

Jesus gathered the disciples together and reminded them of all they had previously encountered, all the many times they laughed and cried together and the opportunities they rejoiced in as people's lives were transformed. That was their 'home' with Jesus. In doubt and confusion, joy and wonder, they encountered the one who knew and loved them like no other.

As Jesus saw his time to ascend to the glory of God, he left the disciples with the desire and yearning to be as Jesus in their world. Jesus encouraged them to step out and walk on the water of faith as they are sent on mission. This living faith, the risen Lord was the only genuine power to overcome darkness and greed. This would be their new 'home'. Wherever they were sent, they carried with them their new home that would be filled with the Spirit.

Resurrection Parish is our home! The home base we are sent out from to bring the ascended Jesus, a renewed faith into the community surrounding us; we are the disciples of our church today. We are filled with the Spirit of our Baptism and Confirmation that brings people home to their encounter with God's loving and forgiving Spirit. All that we do as we love all God's people all the time engages Jesus' original message to be a witness of Jesus' presence.

Prepare yourselves for the incoming Holy Spirit who desires to renew our spirit and physical home here at Res. Wear red, orange or yellow next week to our Pentecost celebrations to signify your readiness and desire to live and love in Jesus.

Come Holy Spirit!!!
Fr. Tom

Living With Real Presence In Our Community A Morning of Res On Mission

Join parishioners of all ages in prayer and service on Saturday, June 10
9:00 AM - 12:00 Noon.

Our pilgrimage through the Worship Jesus Years in our diocese and the National Eucharistic Revival continues. Bishop Ricken is asking all parishes to host a Eucharistic Procession in celebration of The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi.

Resurrection will celebrate this procession on Saturday, June 10th, beginning in Church.

A Eucharistic Procession is an act of public worship, a public witness to our belief in the Real Presence, and a great opportunity for evangelization.

The Knights of Columbus will join us and we invite all to make this Eucharistic Procession and then join in one of the service opportunities; however this is not required.

Following the Eucharistic Procession to all four corners of the Resurrection Parish property, teams of people will be sent out to engage in service throughout the community.

Types of Service Opportunities

- ☀️ Nursing Home Visits
- ☀️ Sorting Clothes
- ☀️ Food Pantry Work
- ☀️ Painting & Simple Repairs

Register by June 1 at www.gbres.org/mission or contact Tony Pichler with the information of where you would like to serve.

We are the Body of Christ!
On June 10, we will be a visible presence of this reality to the Greater Green Bay Community!

The Word Among Us

Resurrection Parish has copies available of the daily prayer resource The Word Among Us. Copies can be found at all of the entrances to church and at the receptionist desk in the Welcome Center.

The resource contains the daily Scripture readings proclaimed at Mass as well as a daily meditation.

Suggested donation is $1.00.

For more information please see Tony Pichler.

Smiles Needed to Celebrate 60 Years

In September, Resurrection will celebrate 60 Years of Faith in Action:

Welcoming and Loving All God's People All the Time.

We are in need of smiles for a new photo directory which is available online or through print on demand booklets.

Photos will be taken after weekend Masses

April 15 - July 2

or submit your own favorite photo to photodirectory@gbres.org.

There are no photos to purchase and will only take a few minutes of your time. Please come see us in the Day Chapel and show us your smiles!

Journeying to Emmaus

The Journeying To Emmaus With Real Presence Listening Process

We are on a journey as a parish community throughout the Easter Season, listening to the hopes and dreams of every parishioner.

Take a moment to share your thoughts through a short survey and/or a SWOT method that identifies the Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats that are present in our parish community at this time.

Share your thoughts online at www.gbres.org/listening.

The hard copies of the survey and SWOT are also available at all church entrances.

We would love to hear from you by Pentecost on May 28. Thank you for being on the journey!

Baby Bottle Boomerang Mothers' Day thru Fathers' Day

Last weekend, Resurrection launched the annual Baby Bottle Boomerang project in partnership with Love Life East to support of families with infants and toddlers.

Information and instructions are found on the bottles. Please take a bottle home as a reminder and then return the bottle anytime through Fathers' Day. You may also donate online at weshareonline.gbres.org
