

RESURRECTION Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Sixth Weekend in Ordinary Time

September 25 & 26, 2021

In a poem attributed to St. Teresa of Avila, entitled Christ Has No Body, part of the poems says, “Christ has no body but yours,

no hands, no feet on earth but yours,
yours are the eyes with which
He looks compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which He blesses all the world.”

This weekend's scripture readings remind us that the good we do should be grounded in our faith. In the first reading, an individual tells Moses to stop someone from prophesying and Moses reminds them that all of us are called to live as spirit-filled prophets. In our Christian Baptism, we are all anointed “prophets,” not for a temporary mission but for our entire lives.

In the Gospel, Jesus is informed that someone is casting out demons in his name. Jesus, too, informs them not to stop them. This Gospel reminds us that the Spirit of God works in and through all people...the Church is not an exclusive club.

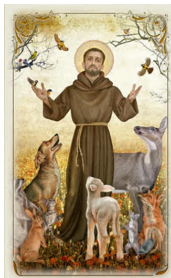

All of us are called to live as Christ in the world, to be prophets, and to do good works. We are to be his body, his eyes, his hands, and his feet for He has only us to do his work.

What is Stewardship?

Stewardship is prayer

*Did you know in one week you have 168 hours?
Have you ever thought about how you spend those hours?
How many hours do you give to God each week?*

Make a little time to...

Take 10: Commit to spending 10 minutes in personal prayer with Jesus! Share your joy, pain, heartaches, or how you desire to get closer to him!

Community Prayer: Mass should be a high point in our week, coming together in a community to be in the presence of Jesus. Consider making Sunday liturgy a top priority, in person or online!

Family Prayer: Pray as a family each day! It might mean bedtime, mealtimes, or a Rosary on the way to school or sporting events. Committing to prayer as a family provides comfort and peace in all we do!
